

The Daily DELEGATE

• THE 12TH EDITION • THE 12TH EDITION • THE 12TH EDITION • THE 12TH EDITION • THE 12TH EDITION •

Amity International School Sector-46 Gurugram

AMIGMUN '21

TOWARDS ANOTHER DECADE OF NURTURING DIPLOMATS

AMIGMUN '21 at a Glance!

- By Shikhar Srivastava (11-B)

Closing Ceremony

- By Arham Jain (11-H)

As the saying goes, all good things must come to an end. The first E-AMIGMUN was a ground-breaking success, with everyone witnessing fantastic orators and skilled strategists deliberating on world issues and showcasing their remarkable attempts at resolving real-life conflicts.

The ceremony was graced by the presence of our respected Principal ma'am, Ms. Arti Chopra and distinguished Chef de Cabinet, Ms. Kusum Kapoor who raised the enthusiasm bar with invigorating words for the delegates, new and experienced ones alike.

The award distribution kept its place of being the most-awaited event, having everyone on the edge of their seats. Delegates hand-picked by the EB for their extraordinary debating and deliberating were felicitated and praised accordingly.

AMIGMUN'21 ended with a resounding thump of the gavel by the Secretary General, Somesh Taori, leaving a lasting echo in everyone's hearts with the nostalgic memories of the conference.

- By Vanalika Maini (12-A)

- Sincerely, the practically non-existent delegate

UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY (UNGA DISEC)

[illegible]

Productive and constructive debates seemed to be paving the way for genuine solutions to the problems under discussion. Proper conduct was followed, although some delegates physically raised their hands on accident instead of using the digital ones. The week-long training session was very effective, it seems!

-The EB

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

Further discussions were followed where accountability and financial responsibility of larger countries and international organizations were discussed. The E-MUN etiquettes went flying out of the window as confusion and tensions rose among the opposing members of the WHO, leaving the EB amused, with a tinge of irritation.

-Sahar Dua, Co-Chair

RAISE YOUR HANDS

64 PARTICIPANTS

RAISE YOUR HANDS

- By Amish Mamtani (11-B)

UN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

Priorities changed; even the delegate of the US supported China, so much so that it elicited a 'US stop being so money hungry' from one of the EBs. All things considered, the committee was extremely stunning and even managed to have an amazing press release!

-Yojasvadeep Chauhan, Chair

Meenal Kumari

Kritika Singh

Shivank Chhabra

Ardit Dhir

Himanshu Jain

Sakshat Singh Chaudhary

Minika Mukherjee

Dhyanesh Acharya

Aditya Shrivastava

Aryan Arora

Tanish Jain

Harvik Khanna

Rishika Saha

Harshank Tyagi

A cartoon drawing of a young girl with pigtails, freckles, and a wide smile. She is holding a large protest sign that reads: "TREATY IS NOT", "Telling you we had a discussion", "of possible withdrawal to the", "an advance peace process", "NO!", and "GIVEN BY ISRAEL".

- By Arham Jain (11-H)

cies in the third moderated caucus. The committee reached its climax as they prioritized on strengthening supply chains and forming a single draft resolution. The most shocking part of the entire session was the fact that USA and China ended up becoming allies, despite opposing each other throughout the debates!

"3.14 hota hai Pi, chhotu do mujhe chai"

-Nimish Aggarwal, Chair

- By Kuhu Gupta (11-J), Sudiksha Sarcar (12-H)

ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTIES MEET

Continuing the first day's theme, AIPPM began with multiple failed motions (as expected) until finally commencing the session, already an hour into the day. Points regarding the IT Act of 2021 were put forward, and the proposition accused Twitter for allegedly violating article 14 of the constitution.

The committee became riveting with leader of opposition Rahul Gandhi giving a controversial statement (yet again), stating that the Indian Army cannot be trusted and questioned its sovereignty.

- By Arham Jain (11-H)

The committee's turning point came when the EB (tired of the repetitive speeches) stepped in himself to give a speech as a member of the ruling party, setting the committee's direction. With great rhetoric being the highlight throughout, it was Azam Khan who faced the cruelty of technology by forgetting where he had saved his speech!

"Chhupane ke liye kuch nahi hai, toh aapko darne ki bhi zarurat nahi hai"

-Subhramaniam Swami

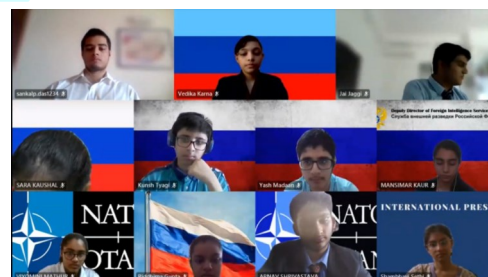

- By Farhan Siddiqui (11-C), Amogh Arya (11-G)

JOINT CRISIS COMMITTEE: NATO vs RUSSIA

Russia and NATO's first direct encounter broke the monotony present in yesterday's session. Commander in Chief of the Russian Aerospace Forces and the Director-General of International Military Staff (NATO) seemed to be at the forefront of the argument, and occasional statements by Putin mixed with Chechen involvement made the debates in the committee even spicier.

Teams couldn't handle the raging delegates and the decorum of the committee went down the drain. The optimism expressed by the Deputy Commander of Allied Land Command (NATO) felt like a breath of fresh air to what was previously a heated and hostile committee.

Although NATO had a hard time believing that Russia was not involved in the bombing of their embassy, they cooperated nonetheless.

- By Ananya Agarwal (12-E)

"Back off Russia!"

-Director General of International Military Staff, NATO

- By Shambhavi Sethi (12-J)

IP TITLES!

Uses creative tricks to get their way
Sherlock

Secretary General

The Most Experienced One
Gandalf

Delegate of UK (IAEA)

Doesn't Leave the EB Alone
Lavender Brown

Delegate of Peru (WTO)

Life of the Committee
Jay Gatsby

Delegate of Palestine (UNGA)

The Researched One
Annabeth Chase

Delegate of Russia (WHO)

Small but Powerful
Tris Prior

Commander-in-Chief of Russian Aerospace Forces (JCC)

The Lost Delegate
Alice

Shashi Tharoor (AIDPM)

The One with Boring Speeches
Dr. Frankenstein

Director of Foreign Intelligence Service Russia (JCC)

The brooding emo character
Edward Cullen

IAEA Executive Board

Awkward but means well
Mr. Darcy

Delegate of Poland (UNCODUOS)

The Best Dressed
Blair Waldorf

Delegate of Bahrain (UNHRC)

"Committee- Online MUN Agenda- Internal Monologue"

- By Mansi Kumari (12-H)

Oh, how I miss those days,
Checking through lists, walking to the room, the first one there,
Gazing at the empty tables, just taking it all in,
Just seconds before the delegates come rushing in.
Now I can't excitedly bolt to place,
No rush to reach, I'm only a few clicks away from the venue.

I could battle speed, one hand always holding onto the placard,
I could raise it high, aim to catch EB's attention,
Controlling my adrenaline to not give me a stroke,
I could barely sit on my seat, and wanted to hop
Oh, how times change, I never anticipated
I now 'raise my hand' and stay glued to my dull chair.

Unmod was always my strong play,
I could scream and shout my justifications, exactly my forte,
But what good does WhatsApp do?
I'm forced to cage my emotions, CAPSLOCK NEVER COMES THROUGH.

I miss it, all the mumbling, and all the grinning,

I, the expert commentator always whispering,
Answering their rebuttals,
internally smirking when they couldn't answer mine.
Now, look at my inconceivable fortune,
Talking to myself, all alone in my tiny room.

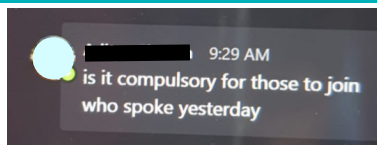

- By Amish Mamtani (11-B)

On a Lighter Note

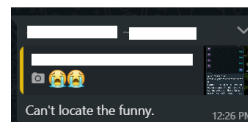

Right, of course, we completely understand you :)

To: Israel
From North Korea

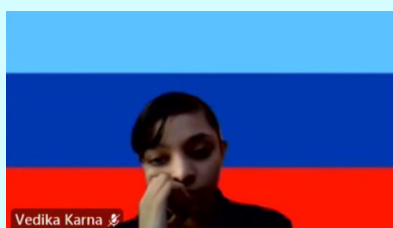

I said that Israeli civilians are real terrorists. Not said that Israelis are terrorists.

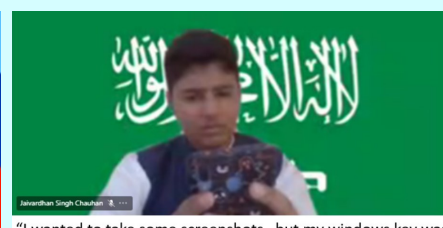

IP DECIDING MEMES BE LIKE:

Russia: "Can't bash NATO with a dry throat!"
NATO: Actually, you can't bash us with your brain
Russia: Actually, all of your arguments are biased.
NATO 10 sec later: Oh...Oh NO...NOOOOOO

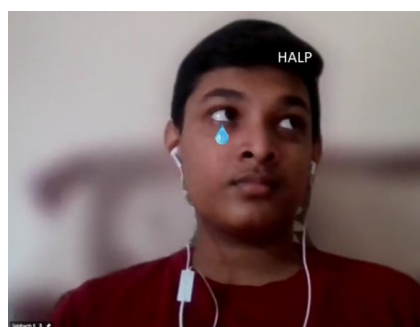

Vedika Karna
The look on your face...when your motion fails with only one vote

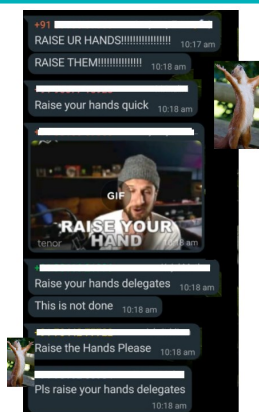

"I wanted to take some screenshots...but my windows key was broken..
OK FINE I use a Macbook

"You know, I wanted to act in Legally Blonde or something but they didn't have great cameras...
So I ended up in an MUN without a great camera...or blond hair."

When your mum yells at you in the middle of your GSL speech

Meet the IP Team

'Yes Delegate!' – a Series

- By Sayantani Dubey (12-J), Nayonika Mavuri (12-S)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude towards our guiding lights Founder Sir Dr. Ashok K. Chauhan and Honourable Chairperson Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan Ma'am, our pillar of strength respected Principal Ms. Arti Chopra Ma'am, our mentors Ms. Kusum Kapoor ma'am, Ms. Sushila Panwar Ma'am, Ms. Vanshika Tuteja Ma'am and Ms. Manisha Sharma Ma'am and the entire social sciences department for their undying support. Last but not the least, The Executive Board, for being role models for our budding diplomats and the Delegates-whose flame of passion and hunger for knowledge kept the show going, we thank you.